Special Features: Over 100 Courses To Pick From
There will be over 100 different training sessions to pick from in 2018. No other gang training program has this level of sophistication. The NGCRC has the biggest and best training program and other special features as well. See over 35 courses already listed at the website.

Special Networking Opportunities: The “Veterans Reception”
The NGCRC’s 2018 Training Conference will allow military veterans to attend a special event just for them. It is hosted by three NGCRC staff: Dr. Todd Negola, Dr. D. Lee Gilbertson, and Fred Moreno. This feature has been a great success and will be repeated in the 2018 Conference. It provides for a special evening reception designed to enhance networking among military veterans attending the conference. Other receptions at the conference are offered too; they are all free to those registered for the conference (Gang Counseling/Prevention Specialists Reception, Law Enforcement/Prosecution/Corrections Reception, etc).

Free Special Networking Events
The NGCRC has special networking events and receptions, free to attendees. The conference website provides information about the networking events and how to sign up for these opportunities to meet with program staff and others. In 2017 we did offer attendees in law enforcement the opportunity to do ride-a-longs with the Chicago Police Department’s Gang Unit, we will try to offer a few ride-a-long slots and give these away on a first come first served basis at the conference website. Over 100 attendees in the 2017 training conference also went to one of the evening baseball games. This year we are giving away 100 tickets to attendees to see the Chicago White Sox vs New York Yankees. We will also be giving away tickets to a Chicago Cubs game for August 5th (Cubs vs. San Diego Padres).

Special Features like the Open Intake/Open Exit Training System
This means we provide an enormous amount of flexibility in allowing you to earn and accumulate your required 24 hours of training outside of the regular 8 to 5 schedule. We provide courses on Sunday evening, August 5th, 2018, in the afternoon and evening, allowing you to accumulate hours before the conference officially begins 8:00am on Monday August 6th. We offer noon hour sessions on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, so you can accumulate more hours. We offer evening activities and sessions on Monday and Tuesday evenings so you can accumulate more hours. And we offer the “early riser” (6am-8am) sessions on Tuesday and Wednesday so you can accumulate more hours. This means you can accumulate your 24 hours as quickly as you want to, allowing you to exit almost any time (a real convenience for meeting tight flight and travel plans).

Special Take Home Training Materials (The Goody Bag)
No one provides more in terms of valuable printed gang training publications. The NGCRC provides a free “goody bag” of training and reference materials to all attendees. At a minimum, attendees receive four (4) copies of the Journal of Gang Research and other valuable information. The copies of the Journal retail for $75 each (a $300 value overall). So there is added value in the NGCRC training and this is reflected in the objective material value of the take home goody bag every trainee registering for Certification or Non-Certification receives.

This is Your Invitation to Attend the August 6-8th, 2018 NGCRC Special Gang Training Conference:
It’s the conference you cannot afford to miss. In the summer of 2018, the National Gang Crime Research Center will hold its 21st International Gang Training Conference in Chicago — once again bringing together the Nation’s top experts on gangs and gang-related issues. Last year’s (2017) opening ceremony featured the CPD Gang Commander.
It’s the experience you’ve come to expect — the opportunity to network with all segments of corrections (juvenile and adult corrections), prisons and jails, probation and parole, prosecution and law enforcement, K-12 School staff and prevention/intervention program staff from all over the country and abroad, including private sector prevention professionals.
Once again, the NGCRC will be offering you an enormous variety of choices to craft the education that is most pertinent to you and your jurisdiction. Many courses are already listed online for you to study (www.ngcrc.com/courses.html)! You’ll come away with new insights, the latest intel, and the most effective strategies to combat gangs.
You cannot afford to miss the NGCRC’s 21st International Gang Specialist Training Conference in Chicago in the summer of 2018.

We Have Proof The NGCRC Training Is Worthwhile and Effective: Basically The Best Available Today
By visiting the NGCRC website (www.ngcrc.com), you can click the button for the “2018 Conference” and see a massive amount of backup and supportive material offering hard proof of the value of the NGCRC training model. This includes much statistical evidence. This also includes a vast number of testimonials from gang experts in the field who testify as to the value of the NGCRC Training Program.

Why the NGCRC has continued to set the “Gold Standard” for Gang Training:
The National Gang Crime Research Center (NGCRC) has pioneered the field by first of all being producers of gang knowledge, publishing and disseminating useful information recognized at the highest levels of the social scientific community. Additionally, the NGCRC has a long track record of service (1990 to present) to law enforcement and correctional agencies nationwide in the goal of reducing gang violence. The research and intelligence analysis developed by the NGCRC over the years, and published in its scholarly journal, the Journal of Gang Research (now in its 25th year of publication), is of great practical value for gang investigators in law enforcement and STG coordinators in the field of corrections. Gang investigators at all levels of government, here and abroad, as well as gang prevention/intervention practitioners and program staff who attend the NGCRC training conferences have clearly made their views known that the NGCRC training is the best in regard to offering high quality practical choices. Police and corrections experts teach a variety of courses at the NGCRC training conference.
The NGCRC training conference is specifically designed to “train the trainer”: someone who completes the training will be able to return to their police department or institution equipped to train others. Investigators and prevention practitioners return with a wealth of printed information, and lots of new “networking contacts”: persons to call upon in the future.
Special Training Areas in Prevention and Intervention:
Some of the training tracks you can sign up for in terms of Certification include: Gang Counseling Techniques, Gangs and Drugs, Gang Prevention Skills, Gang Problems in K-12 Schools, Faith-Based Programs for Gang Intervention, Dealing With Gang Members in Probation/Parole, Female Gangs, Gang Program Grantwriting/Fundraising Skills, Gang and Violence Prevention for School Administrator, Gang Outreach and Intervention Skills, Management Skills for Gang Outreach, Prevention and Intervention Services, Gangs and Mental Health.

Special Training Areas For Law Enforcement, Corrections, and Prosecution:

The “Added Value” of NGCRC Training:
The added value of NGCRC training is easy to explain and it is designed to be different than other groups who sponsor such training conferences; you get more for your money. You see that reflected in the evaluation results from previous NGCRC Conferences. Other people “copy” what we do, or they try to. But you can do a quick check of facts here: who else offers as many different sessions or courses than the NGCRC? It is such a huge and massive undertaking, that persons who attend this conference benefit from the very factor of “diversity” in the choices they have — what they want to learn, what instructors they want to learn from, etc.

First, all NGCRC trainees are given a wealth of high-quality take home printed training materials. The value of these materials, reflecting the official journals from the NGCRC and related topics of interest about gangs, is itself a significant value. Most gang training programs provide a small amount of take-home written training materials, while the NGCRC provides an abundance of high-quality written take-home training materials. All persons attending the conference and registering for Certification or Non-Certification receive a “bag of goodies” which includes these kinds of useful written training materials.

Secondly, no other training organization in the world provides the large variety of training options that the NGCRC provides; the NGCRC brings in more trainers and provides, therefore, more “choices” to trainees. NGCRC provides a large professional training experience in an environment designed for training. For example in the 2017 Conference there were over 120 different courses or training sessions. Typically, gang conferences offer a small selection of training options. So if you think a variety of choices is a good thing, then you need to attend our training conference.

Thirdly, the NGCRC training is designed to produce “trainers”: trainees who attend and complete the training typically return to their respective jurisdictions with an incredible new arsenal of training tools to train others in the field. You will get new and useful gang information at our 2018 Training Conference.

Fourthly, the NGCRC training includes social opportunities that are structured to enhance the ability of the trainee to network with others in the field at a national and international level.

BENEFITS OF ATTENDING THE 2018 NGCRC TRAINING CONFERENCE:
You have the power to “choose” what you want to learn. You have the right to “major” in what area of specialization or concentration you are interested in. Our conference provides an incredible array of different professional gang training sessions that trainees can make up their own minds what they want to attend. This is not the “one size fits all” model of training where every trainee attends each of a small limited number of training sessions and every trainer works all day to give the same talk three or four times. Our training program provides what we think people really want: the freedom to choose what kind of training they want from an incredible list of available choices. If you wanted a “Crash Course” on gangs, then this would be it.

There has never been a gang training conference where people can “specialize” in a wide variety of areas of expertise. So the 2018 NGCRC Gang Training Conference really is a “history making event”. It allows persons to network with others in their special area of interests and it has the organizational strength of much diversity among the trainers. It also has curriculum materials that are truly “cutting-edge”. No one else promises you NETWORKING RESULTS. We do, based on previous performance.

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION OPTIONS:
Trainees can register for Non-Certification or they can register for Certification. Both of these registration options are explained below.

Non-Certification: This option is for those who do not need a transcript to be maintained of their training experience and who do not desire a high quality certificate in an upward path of gang specialist training. This option is best for those who just want to attend, get the training materials, and be free to come and go as they wish. Trainees are eligible to receive 24 hours of on-site training during the conference. Please note that if you register for non-certification you do not receive any certificates of your training.

Certification: The certification is provided by the National Gang Crime Research Center, the premier gang research organization in the world, founded in 1990 it publishes the only professional international refereed journal about gangs (the Journal of Gang Research), it does extensive research on gangs, and it has a strong positive track record for providing high quality training on gang issues. The Journal of Gang Research has 24 years of gang research publishing experience and as the Official Publication of the NGCRC it is abstracted in the Psychological Abstracts, Criminal Justice Abstracts, Sociological Abstracts, Social Service Abstracts, and other international organizations that recognize professional journals. For more information about the accomplishments of the NGCRC, see its webpage information (www.ngcrc.com). When you register for certification you receive two professionally printed color certificates of high display quality reflecting your training. One of these certificates reflects the completion of the 2018 Training Program; and the second certificate reflects your specialized training in your chosen track area. Those registering for non-certification do not receive such certificates.
Select Your Certification Specialty Choice From a List of 32 Different Options (Training Tracks):

Those who register for certification receive two high quality 8½" x 11" certificates reflecting their training. The certificates carry the seal of the National Gang Crime Research Center. If you register for certification, then you receive two certificates (1) one reflects that you completed the NGCRC’s 2018 program consisting of 24 hours of intensive training, and (2) the second certificate reflects that you completed a minimum of four hours in a specialized topical area, i.e., your “track”. See the list of the 32 different training tracks on the registration form provided on pages 3-4.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS:

The site where the training is occurring is the Westin Michigan Avenue Chicago Hotel. The Westin Michigan Avenue is located at 909 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, IL 60611. The Telephone number for the Westin Michigan Avenue Hotel is (312) 943-7200. The toll free number for the Central Reservations Call Center is: 1 (888) 627-8385. When making reservations, the “code” for the conference is “NGCRC Gang Conference”. They need that “code” to give you the reduced hotel rates.

The cut-off date for getting the rates here is July 16, 2018: Singles $199, Double $199, Triple $224, Quad Rate $249.

Trainees will, as in past NGCRC training conferences, be able to pick up their “goody bags” the evening before training begins. Training classes begin 8am Monday morning, August 6, 2018. However, you will be able to pick up your registration materials, your Identification Badge, the final schedule, and your “goody bag” the night before: We expect to be able to start giving out registration materials about 3pm on Sunday, 5 August 2018. We will be open to provide this service until about 10:00 p.m. Just go to the NGCRC Operations Center (The Garfield Park Room is the NGCRC Operations Center) to pick up your materials. Signs will be prominently displayed.

Three Examples of Training Sessions Offered at:

www.ngcrc.com/2018.conference.html:

Remember: The NGCRC Training Conference offers over 100 different training courses or sessions. That provides you with the largest number of choices for training, no one offers more choices than the NGCRC.

Here are Three Examples of Useful Sessions Offered For the 2018 NGCRC Gang Training Conference:

(30) “Correctional Intelligence and Street Crime Investigations”, by Captain Philip J. Swift, Ph.D., Denver County Sheriff’s Department, Denver, CO. Two (2) hours. Restriction: Attendance of this class is restricted to law enforcement/corrections staff, probation/parole officers, and judicial investigators.

Abstract

During this block of instruction attendees will learn about the types and sources of gang information and intelligence that are available to law enforcement officers and investigators from jail and corrections based intelligence units as well as the legality of requesting and using such information. Attendees will be introduced to tactics and techniques that “street” officers can use to increase the likelihood of a suspects divulging criminal intelligence while incarcerated. Attendees will also be introduced to techniques and tactics that jail and correctional staff can use to grooms informants and gather credible intelligence. A case study of the 211 Crew organized crime indictment in Denver, Colorado will be used to highlight the value of correctional intelligence and corroboration with jail/correctional staff. The positive and negative “take aways” of the 211 Crew indictment and prosecution, from an intelligence standpoint, will also be discussed.

Two (2) hours

Abstract

For years, traditional gang prosecution models have focused on building cases against criminal enterprises and indicting street gangs for federal offenses such as RICO and VCAR, which can take years to effectively investigate and prosecute. In an effort to have a more strategic and intelligence-driven response to trends in gang crime, build partnerships with law enforcement agencies, and improve community and officer safety, the United States Attorney’s Office for the District of Utah recently announced the Utah Gang Initiative. Under this Initiative, the District of Utah is focusing its anti-gang efforts on federal offenses that target gang crime in our community: firearm possession by restricted persons, drug trafficking, Hobbs Act robberies, 924(c) offenses, assaults on federal officers, and immigration violations. This segment will describe and highlight some of the details, benefits, and accomplishments of this Initiative and explain how this Initiative can be introduced and implemented in other jurisdictions.

Abstract

The purpose of this segment is to provide law enforcement officers and prosecutors with the basic tools they need to successfully prosecute criminal street gang activity. The first 1.5 hours will focus on the laws aimed at preventing criminal street gang activity and will provide attendees with an understanding of what criminal street gang activity is. The second 1.5 hours will focus on investigative techniques that can help identify gang activity. And the last hour will focus on presenting the case in court. The last two segments will be taught using a case investigated by Sgt. Jesse Hambrick and prosecuted by Kristi Wilson. By the end of the session, attendees will be able to conduct a basic gang investigation, build a case file, and present the case in court.

More Examples of Sessions From the 2018 NGCRC Curriculum:

1. “An Analysis of Native American Gangs in South Dakota”, by Mario L. Hesse, Ph.D., Chair, Department of Criminal Justice, St. Cloud State University, St. Cloud, MN. One (1) hour

   Abstract
   This session presents an analysis of Native American gang-crime in two metropolitan counties within the state of South Dakota. An analysis of each gang, the members and characteristics will be presented. This session will also discuss the “possible” linkage between juvenile gang-crime and a number of variables (age, gender, race, location, etc).

2. “Historical/Generational Trauma and Its Impact on Gang and Law Enforcement Interactions”, by Captain Philip J. Swift, Ph.D., Denver County Sheriff’s Department, Denver, CO. Two (2) hours

   Abstract
   Attendees will be introduced to the concept of historical/ generational trauma and how this form of trauma impacts communities, cultures, and the development of cognitive schemes. The impact of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and the link between it and historical/ generational trauma among Native Americans and minorities and the less recognized concept of historical/ generational trauma among law enforcement communities and gangs will be analyzed and discussed. The concept of historical/ generational trauma among law enforcement officers and gang members will be used to evaluate the interaction of law enforcement officers and gang members and to evaluate the success and failure of gang prevention, intervention, and interdiction programs.

3. “Getting Published: How to Publish Your Gang Related Research”, by Dr. Gregg W. Etter, Sr., Ed.D., Professor, Department of Criminal Justice, University of Central Missouri; and Dr. Carter F. Smith, JD, Ph.D., Lecturer, Department of Criminal Justice Administration, Middle Tennessee State University. One (1) hour

   Abstract
   This session examines how an academic or criminal justice practitioner can share their knowledge of the gang field by publishing articles in the criminal justice literature. Selecting a subject, formatting, cover letters, and publishing venue selection are covered. What is the difference between a trade magazine or edited journal and a refereed journal? How do you write a book proposal?

   Abstract
   This session provides a discussion of when and why youth leave gang membership and what factors contribute to these decisions. Thelink between gang membership and desistance from crime will be discussed. The findings from this session will help practitioners identify youth who are more likely to desist from gang involvement.

5. “Pathways to Desistance”, by Keiron McConnell, Surrey, British Columbia, Canada.. One (1) hour

   Abstract
   In this presentation the audience will learn about the structure of policing in Canada and the impact this has on Gangs, Guns, and Drugs. This presentation will include a discussion on the impact that Canada has in its law enforcement and policies on the U.S. with a focus on the importation of marijuana into the U.S. and the exportation of guns and cocaine into Canada from the U.S.

Some Quotes From Those Who Attended the 2016 NGCRC Conference:

   “Networking’ with others was very helpful in gaining intel.”, “Baseball game” and “The variation of classes and the freedom of choosing the sessions I want to attend”. Captain Loretta D. Wells, Nebraska Department of Corrections, Omaha, NE.
   “I have been to the conference 4 times over the last 5 years and there has been new material presented each year.” Crystal Thomas, Evansville Police Department, Evansville, IN.
   “I have been to many drug and gang conferences. The NGCRC Conference is, by far, the best conference I have attended. Very few will offer such a wide range of expertise.” Mike O’Brien, F.B.I. Federal Gang Task Force, Moline, IL.
   “The overall conference was great! I appreciate how organized everything was. The location was perfect. Most of the presenters appeared to be subject matter experts. This was my first time attending, it will not be my last.” Zaneta P. Simpson, Mecklenburg County Sheriffs Office, Charlotte, NC.
   “The best part of the conference is you can always find what your looking for from the vast array of instructors. From a basic class to a more extensive approach. This training is still the best in the nation & you will get out of it exactly what you put into it.” Michael Robbins, Adams County Sheriff’s Office, Brighton, CO.
   “As always 1st class training totally relevant useful information. Best gang training conference in the country, networking heaven!! Thank you Dr Knox and staff, looking forward to next year.” Dominick J. Cicala, New Jersey Juvenile Justice Commission, Trenton, NJ.
   “You have some of the best instructors that I have ever heard and I’ve taken classes for over 21 years.” Det. Jason Dwight Hudson, Louisville Metro Police Department, Louisville, KY.
   “I have been a gang detective for 9 years and actually learned new things about street gangs and gang culture.” Det. Rigoberto Amaro, Waukegan Police Department, Waukegan, IL.
   “Very well organized. Up to date information.” Lt. Kenneth Winklepleck, Douglasville Police Department, Douglasville, GA.
   “I really like the way classes are setup. You can travel from class to class and go to the ones that interest you the most. Also really enjoyed the variety of topics”. William Noon, Toledo Police Department, Toledo, OH.
